State of the

This Living Trust Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") is entered into by and between _____ (the "Grantor"), residing at _____, and _____ (the "Trustee"), residing at _____.

In consideration of the mutual covenants and promises set forth in this Agreement, the Grantor and the Trustee agree to the following:

Article I. DESIGNATION OF TRUST

1. The trust established pursuant to this Agreement shall be identified and referred to as the "Living Trust of _____." The assets, property, and transactions associated with this Trust may be held, managed, and conducted under the name of the Trustee and, where otherwise authorized within this Agreement, may also be held in the name of a designated nominee.

Article II. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

2. The fundamental purpose of this Agreement is to establish a revocable living trust that shall receive, hold, and administer assets for the benefit and welfare of the Grantor throughout the Grantor's natural lifetime. Upon the occurrence of the Grantor's death, this Trust shall continue to manage, administer, and ultimately distribute the Trust assets in accordance with the provisions set forth herein.

Article III. TRUST FUNDING AND PROPERTY TRANSFER

3. The Grantor has hereby transferred, assigned, conveyed, and delivered and/or shall subsequently transfer, assign, convey, and deliver to the Trustee those items of property specifically described and enumerated in Schedule A, which is attached hereto, and incorporated by reference as an integral component of this Agreement. Such property, together with any and all additional property that may hereafter be assigned, conveyed, or delivered to the Trustee by the Grantor or by any other person as provided herein, shall constitute the corpus of the trust estate and shall be held by the Trustee in trust for the uses, purposes, and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter established.

4. The Grantor, or any third party, with the express consent of the Trustee, may at any time or from time to time deed, grant, devise, bequeath, gift, or otherwise cause additional property of any kind to be transferred to and administered as part of the trust estate created under this Agreement. Any such transfer may be evidenced by the written receipt of the Trustee, and each such receipt shall serve as conclusive evidence of the Trustee's consent to accept such transfer.

Article IV. ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST ASSETS

5. The Trustee shall manage, administer, invest, and distribute the Trust assets for the benefit of the Grantor and the Grantor's designated successors in interest in strict accordance with the terms, conditions, and provisions of this Agreement.

Article V. SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE PROVISIONS

6. In the event that the Grantor serves as the initial Trustee, the Grantor reserves the right to designate and appoint a successor Trustee. Such appointment shall become effective immediately or upon the occurrence of any specified contingency, by executing such designation in writing. The designated successor shall assume the role of Trustee upon written acceptance of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement.
7. In the event that any Trustee becomes unable or unwilling to serve in such capacity, is hereby designated as the successor Trustee, who shall serve without the requirement of posting any bond.
8. Any serving Trustee may voluntarily resign from the position by providing written notice to those beneficiaries who are currently receiving income distributions under the provisions of this Agreement. Such resignation shall become effective on the date specified in the notice, provided that such date is no earlier than thirty calendar days following the delivery of the written resignation, unless an earlier effective date is mutually agreed upon by the income beneficiaries.
9. In the event that a Trustee resigns or is for any reason unwilling or unable to continue serving as Trustee, and if the successor Trustee previously designated by the Grantor fails or ceases to serve as Trustee, then the adult beneficiaries who are currently receiving income distributions, together with the adult beneficiaries who would receive principal distributions if the Trust were to terminate at that time, may, by majority written action, appoint a successor Trustee. If agreement among a majority of such beneficiaries cannot be successfully obtained within sixty calendar days, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by the court having general jurisdiction over the administration of trusts. Any successor Trustee so appointed shall possess all rights conferred upon the original Trustee and shall be bound by all provisions of this Trust Agreement.

10. The Trustee shall provide a complete and accurate accounting to the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries at a minimum on an annual basis, or more frequently as circumstances may require.
11. No Trustee, whether original or successor, shall be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of duties.

Article VI. DISTRIBUTIONS DURING GRANTOR'S LIFETIME

12. Throughout the Grantor's lifetime, the Trustee shall distribute all net income generated by this Trust, together with such amounts from principal as the Grantor may request, to or for the benefit of the Grantor or to such other person or persons as the Grantor may designate.
13. Such distributions shall be made at a minimum on an annual basis.
14. The Grantor reserves the right to modify the amount or frequency of distributions at any time by providing written notice to the Trustee.
15. Any income that remains undistributed at the time of the Grantor's death shall be added to the principal of the Trust at the discretion of the Trustee.
16. During any period in which the Grantor experiences a "disability" as defined herein, the Trustee may distribute to or for the benefit of the Grantor such amounts of income and principal as the Trustee, in the exercise of sole and absolute discretion, reasonably believes to be necessary for: (1) the Grantor's support, comfort, and general welfare; (2) the maintenance of the Grantor's accustomed standard of living; or (3) any other purpose that the Trustee believes to be in the best interest of the Grantor.
17. In circumstances involving illness or other disability of the Grantor, the Trustee may, in lieu of making direct payments to the Grantor, use and apply for the Grantor's benefit such amounts of income and principal of the Trust estate as may be necessary for the proper care, comfort, medical treatment, maintenance, and support of the Grantor. The Trustee, in the exercise of discretion, may alternatively pay over to any relative or legal guardian of the Grantor all or any portion of such income or principal for any of the aforementioned purposes.
18. For the purposes of this Trust Agreement, "disability" shall be defined as a legal disability or the inability to provide prompt and intelligent consideration to financial matters by reason of illness, mental incapacity, or physical disability. The determination of whether the Grantor has a disability under this definition shall be made by the Grantor's most recent attending physician. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely upon written notice of such medical determination.

Article VII. TRUST DISTRIBUTION UPON GRANTOR'S DEATH

- 19. To be eligible to receive any specific distribution under this Trust, a beneficiary must survive the Grantor by a minimum period of thirty (30) days. Any items that fail to pass through a specific gift designated by the Grantor shall revert to the residue of the Grantor's Trust. The residue of the Grantor's Trust is to be distributed among the beneficiaries designated herein, with each beneficiary receiving their proportionate share of the residue of the Grantor's entire estate. All property distributed under this Agreement remains subject to any encumbrances, liens, or security interests attached to such property.
- 22. The Trustee shall distribute the residue of the Grantor's Trust in the following manner (hereinafter referred to as "Share Allocations"):

The residue of the Grantor's Trust shall be distributed to all of the Grantor's currently living or future children who are alive at the time of the Grantor's death, in equal shares. If a child of the Grantor does not survive the Grantor, such deceased child's share shall be distributed in equal shares to the children of such deceased child who survive the Grantor, by right of representation. If a child of the Grantor does not survive the Grantor and has no children who survive the Grantor, such deceased child's share shall be distributed in equal shares to the Grantor's other surviving children, if any, or to their respective children by right of representation.

If no children of the Grantor survive the Grantor, and if none of the Grantor's deceased children are survived by any children, the residue of the Grantor's estate shall be distributed to the following alternate beneficiary:

If no above-named beneficiaries survive the Grantor, the residue of the Grantor's Trust shall be distributed to the Grantor's heirs-at-law. Their identities and respective shares are to be determined by the intestacy laws of the applicable state jurisdiction.
